

350°

80°

Two curved arrows indicate rotational degrees of freedom. The top arrow, labeled 350°, points to the upper component, indicating it can rotate around a vertical axis. The bottom arrow, labeled 80°, points to the base, indicating it can rotate around a horizontal axis.

